User Stories

Story #1:

As a business owner, I want to see a welcome screen with images demonstrating the photographer's experience so that I can be confident they are the right hire for my business.

Acceptance Criteria:

- The welcome page should feature images taken by your photographer friend.

- These images should highlight their unique style.

Story #2:

As a user, I want to be able to submit formal requests so that I can easily hire this photographer.

Acceptance Criteria:

- Application should feature a request page.

- The request page must include a user-friendly form to fill out.

- This form should require the user's contact details.

- It should have an optional space for the user to provide further thought.

Story #3:

As a user, I want the link to the photographer's social media accounts included so that I can easily check them out.

Acceptance Criteria:

- Social media links should be available on the homepage.
